

What's New in Microsoft Project 2010

Description	Microsoft Project 2010 introduces a huge number of new features that make it easier for people to use the tool's existing and new features to better manage projects. In this class, you will learn how to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • navigate the new ribbon-based user interface • understand and harness the power of the backstage view to set options, manage printing, etc. • strategically use the new manually-scheduled vs. the auto-scheduled tasks • use the Timeline view • use inactive tasks • use the Team Planner view to manage resources • and use many other new and existing features in Project...
Length	1 day (custom deliveries available with additional days)
Professional Development Units	7 PDUs
Prerequisites	None
Materials	Custom materials provided by Instructor.
Who Should Take This Course	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Anyone interested in new functionality in Microsoft Project. • Beginning project managers or team members. • Experienced project managers who want to know how to better use Microsoft Project to meet their project needs. • Project managers who need to incorporate the discipline of project management with Microsoft Project software tools.
Rate	$225 / person Discounts available for on-site classes or for multiple attendees

Note: Custom classes and consulting are available upon request to provide additional information, or to create custom templates and attributes for your SharePoint site.

